2022 annual Morristown Festival on the Green

Live entertainment and fun for all ages awaits on Oct. 2, rain or shine

By Karen Roettger
Special to The Star-Ledger

The Morristown Festival on the Green, a time-honored seasonal celebration, will bring back the sights, sounds and flavors of fall to the town's iconic Green from noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 2 (rain or shine). Produced by the Morristown Partnership, with the support of longstanding and new sponsors in 2022, the event will showcase many new and returning Greater Morristown businesses, as well as local civic and non-profit organizations.

The family-friendly festival, held in Morristown's historic downtown, will feature multiple stages of live entertainment, children's amusements and carnival games, as well as more than 150 exhibitors and the very popular Beer Tent. Morristown Airport will once again sponsor the Beer Tent.

"Events like the annual Morristown Festival on the Green are a part of what makes Morristown such a great community to live and work in. We're excited to continue our support of the event and look forward to seeing everyone next month," said Corey Hanlon, manager, communications and government relations of DM AIRPORTS, LTD Operators of MMU.

New sponsors in 2022 include Advocare Morristown Pediatric Associates, Chambers Center for Well-Being, Nielsen Auto Group, Ortho East and Valley Bank.

"As a longtime corporate citizen with deep roots in the communities we serve, we are proud to support the Morristown Festival on the Green. We are extremely excited to connect with our local neighbors and partners as we celebrate this vibrant and close-knit community," said Marc Piro Sr., vice president and head of content, creative and public relations of Valley Bank.

The Nielsen Automotive Group, represented by Nielsen Ford of Morristown and Nielsen Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram of Morristown is excited about being part of this year's Morristown Festival on the Green.

"We pride ourselves on our community involvement in all of our locations. This is a great way for us to get involved with our newest stores on Ridgedale Avenue and support a wonderful event and the local Morristown Community," said Bill Snouffer, general manager of the Nielsen Automotive Group.

"At Chambers Center for Well-Being, we believe the combination of health care and self-care will leave you looking and feeling better. The Morristown Festival on the Green is a great opportunity for our entire community to come together and for our team to share some of the inspiring and supportive guidance that will help you take that first step on your well-being journey," said Nikki Sumpter, executive vice president, chief administrative officer, Atlantic Health System (parent company for Chambers Center for Well-Being).

Head down to the corner of DeHart and South streets to enjoy the Main Stage, which will feature returning favorite, the Heart of Gold Band courtesy of longtime sponsor, 40North Restaurants.

"40North Restaurants is pleased to once again sponsor the Main Stage of the 2022 Morristown Festival on the Green. As a sponsor for many years, we always look forward to this weekend and the energy that it brings to Morristown. This year we are very happy to have added NOM to the 40North lineup in Morristown," said Steven J. Baliva, divisional vice president of operation of 40North Group.

Come out and enjoy the music, family entertainment and a wide variety of food available from food-truck favorites and local restaurants. Then grab a beer and take in some football at the Beer Tent.

"This year promises to be our best yet to showcase Morristown's exceptional community, unique historic setting and its wide range of outstanding restaurant, retail and service businesses," said Cassidy Champi, program manager for the Morristown Partnership. "The scene will be set for all ages to come out, enjoy the day and see why Morristown has become the destination of choice for northern New Jersey."

50th anniversary celebration Morris School District Legacy – October 2022

Maintaining and supporting diversity, equity and inclusion in the schools

The Morris School District (MSD) celebrates its 50 year history as the only school district in New Jersey created by a court order, mandating the merging of Morristown and Morris Township schools to promote racial integration.

In 1972, the district embarked on a historic journey to unite the communities and impact the students for generations to come. Throughout these 50 years, the district has worked to maintain and support diversity, equity and inclusion in the schools.

District and community members alike are deeply committed to protecting and perpetuating the unique legacy of the Morris School District.

The Morris Education Foundation (MEF) was subsequently founded in 1992 by Stephen B. Wiley, lead counsel in the MSD merger, to generate and distribute resources to support and enhance MSD schools. This partnership has helped the district continue to be a model of visionary social and educational leadership in New Jersey and the country.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE MORRISTOWN PARTNERSHIP

Morristown Festival of Books 2022

Calling all book lovers. The top literary event in the tri-state area, the Morristown Festival of Books returns October 7-8 in historic downtown Morristown with something for readers of all ages and tastes.

Kicking things off on Oct. 7 is a not-to-be-missed keynote event at MPAC theater: Frank Bruni, long-time New York Times columnist, best-selling author, and Duke University professor, speaking about his memoir The Beauty of Dusk in conversation with MSNBC anchor Katy Tur. Tickets are on sale at morristownbooks.org or by phone at 973-539-8008.

Saturday's Main Festival events are free to the public, thanks to generous sponsors and donors. The roster of 60-plus authors includes some of today's hottest names, such as novelists Marie Benedict, Jean Hanff Koretz, Chris Pavone, Dolen Perkins-Valdez, Nita Prose, and Adriana Trigiani;

Pulitzer Prize-winner and poet Paul Muldoon; cookbook author Eric Kim; and nonfiction writers Tom Coyne, Maggie Doyno, Roger Lowenstein, and Bob Ryan.

In a special Closing Event, the world's best-selling author James Patterson will speak at the Presbyterian Church on the Green. Tickets are on sale now at morristownbooks.org.

The ever-popular, free KidFest includes dozens of outstanding children's authors such as Dan Gutman, TODAY Show meteorologist Dylan Dreyer, Tracey Baptiste, and Caldecott Medalist Jason Chin, illustrator of Watercress. James Patterson will also appear in a session for young readers — no ticket required!

Morristown Festival of Books proudly supports literacy and education, this year through a partnership with Literacy Volunteers of Morris County.

Grand Harvest Wine Festival set for Oct. 8-9

The Grand Harvest Wine Festival will usher in fall.

There is no better place to enjoy a glass of New Jersey wine on a crisp autumn afternoon than on the grounds of Fosterfields Living Historical Farm in Morristown. The festival takes place from noon to 5 p.m. on Oct. 8-9.

Once you spend a day at the event, you'll know why so many people attend every year. There's nothing like sitting in the back field surrounded by autumn leaves, enjoying great wine, listening to fabulous bands, enjoying culinary delights from some of the state's best food trucks, shopping artisan crafters and relaxing with family and friends.

New Jersey wineries always embrace this event as a time to "salute autumn" and unveil some of their newest offerings for the fall. Excitement for this annual event is quite astounding, with attendees inquiring about tickets months in advance. Pumpkin spice coffee, apple cider, and hot cocoa are great and all, but nothing compares to a lovely fall afternoon surrounded by great people and even greater wineries. So come enjoy a crisp fall weekend at New Jersey's salute to autumn.

For advance discount tickets and more info, visit newjerseywineevents.com.
